This Year's Catalog on our 34th Anniversary is Dedicated to:

Born in Dallas, Texas, in 1957, Gary Cutrer was raised by his parents William and Helen Cutrer from age 2 on in El Dorado, Arkansas. He graduated from El Dorado High School in 1976.

Gary attended Louisiana Tech University 1976-1981, graduating with bachelor's of science in mechanical engineering. He moved to West Texas in September 1981 and lived for several years on the family ranch, Jacobs Ranch in Upton County, Texas, at historic Castle Gap.

He moved to San Angelo in 1987 and worked in construction, and because of an interest in writing attended Angelo State University to get second bachelor's degree. He completed a BA in journalism in August 1991.

Gary went to work for Scott Campbell at Ranch & Rural Living magazine in September 1991, working there through 1996, going on to another job, and then coming back to work at the magazine in 2001. He has been with the magazine ever since. The magazine

Gary Cutrer

Our Angora goat and mohair industry is fortunate to have had Gary Cutrer as a friendly, familiar 'face' for the 'Ranch & Rural', Sheep and Goat Raisers Magazine dating back to 1991.

The contents of the Ranch Magazine has been filled with photographs of families & youth programs that we know as well as eight to ten articles and reports that we look forward to each month.

was and remains the official publication of the Texas Sheep & Goat Raisers Assoc. Originally called Sheep & Goat Raiser, after two similarly named magazines merged, it has had name changes to The Ranchman's Magazine, The Ranch Magazine, Ranch Magazine and then in 1992 it became Ranch & Rural Living Magazine. The magazine began a second edition toward the end of 2000, that edition becoming the official publication of Rio Grande Electric Cooperative, headquartered in Brackettville, Texas.

Scott and DeAnna Campbell sold the business in November 2006 and Gary was made editor of the magazine by new owners the Wesner family, who owned and still own several weekly newspapers in central Texas and Oklahoma.

Gary had the opportunity to purchase the magazine at the end of 2016 and became editor and publisher in January 2017 and still publishes it and a second publication monthly.

While working for the Campbells, Gary developed a second publication for them, first called Boer Trader & Meat Goat News, a newsletter, in 1994, about the emerging Boer goat/meat goat business in Texas. The weekly then bi-weekly newsletter was turned into a monthly magazine in early 1997 and the name changed to Meat Goat Monthly News. This second magazine grew popular during the hectic growing stages of the Texas meat goat and Boer goat industry in the early 2000s. However, its readership declined with the advent of other goat specific magazines.

After acquiring the business in 2017, Gary changed the name of Meat Goat Monthly News to Sheep & Goat magazine as an homage to the old Sheep & Goat Raiser name and later changed its printed format from a newsprint tabloid to a glossy magazine.

Gary has two children he is very proud of – Ashley Cutrer, 36, who lives in the Fort Worth area and who is a nurse employed as a marketing professional for a growing home health business; and 35-year-old Matthew Cutrer, who lives in San Angelo and owns a health and fitness center called Fitness United and who is a successful personal trainer and workout coach.

Gary has been married three times. “I am confident the third time is the charm,” he said. Gary met his current wife, Juliana Evans Cutrer, while he was living at Jacobs Ranch in 1982. She was a tourist from England at 19 years of age and Gary took Juliana on a date, breakfast at Grace’s Cafe in Crane, Texas, then horseback riding at Jacobs Ranch. Gary and Juliana became sweethearts and were together many months. But Juliana returned to England in mid 1983 and they lost touch.

Then, in 2019, after Gary had been married and divorced twice and had two grown children, Juliana found his profile on Facebook and commented on one of his posts. They grew re-acquainted via Facebook and in 2019 Juliana traveled to Texas to visit Gary, flying from her home in New Zealand where she had been for 30 years. They became engaged and after a few more visits, Juliana braved the height of the COVID-19 scare to fly to the U.S. in August 2020 and they married.

“I am very grateful and humbled to be associated with the agriculture industry in Texas and the southwest, and am always impressed and amazed at the knowledge, productivity, persistence and patriotism of ranchers and ranching families,” Gary said. “Thank you so much to Dr. Fred L. Speck and the organizers of the sale for this honor.”

The name Cutrer is concentrated in south Mississippi and Louisiana. We’re fairly certain it is French or French-Swiss origin, possibly cajun. Most Cutters trace their ancestry back to a patriarch who came to North Carolina around 1705, one Daniel Couturier. His grandson spelled the name Cutrer and the family emigrated as a group to Spanish West Florida (south Mississippi and Louisiana).

REFERENCE SIREs

A.B. HOBSON & SONS MARTYSFORD STUD

76 (1991) - This buck was sired by K131, the twin to the Martysford buck that sold for 110,000 Rand, a world record price. He combined the size, muscle, thickness, and correctness of a superior meat goat with a typical soft South African mohair fleece.
